About us

Do you want to enjoy everything retirement has to offer without the hassle of maintaining your house?

As a resident of Hawthorne Brandon, you can let someone else handle the chores so you can do more of what you love. Maybe you want to spend more time on arts and crafts, learn how to play a musical instrument or attend morning yoga classes. Or you might want to join a book club, meet your friends for a resident social or go on excursions to local museums.

No matter how you want to spend your days, independent living gives you the chance to redefine what it means to be independent while enjoying an active lifestyle and pursuing your passions.

If you or someone you love is interested in exploring independent living options, we welcome you to take that journey with us at Hawthorne Estates of Brandon.

Events and Activities

Activities

Perhaps you're an avid baker who would love to learn how to make a new dessert. Or maybe you're a reader who enjoys reading a classic novel or recent New York Times bestseller. Whatever your passions are, our community provides a great place to pursue them. Our dedicated activities department prepares a full schedule of activities for you to enjoy. From crafts and happy hour to exercise classes and live music, you'll have a wide range of fun activities to choose from.

And the best part— you can join all these activities without ever getting into a car. You could stop by a happy hour, join a team at trivia night, or go on an outing in our community bus.

Events

Social gatherings are an important part of life around here. After all, what good is it to have access to all these activities if you don't have people to share them with? Social events can help you connect with fellow residents and develop genuine friendships with all kinds of interesting people. We also offer Family Dining, where you can invite your family to join you for a meal with gourmet food, luscious wine, and a great time.
